

HATRED OF SIN CHRISTIAN TEST

Harold G. Cooke Declares
Love of Right Must Be Continual.

OPPOSE EVILS HERE

Stench of Tulsa Conditions
Raises to Heaven
He Declares.

Those who attended the union revival services of South Methodist churches at the Boston Avenue M. E. church last night heard a powerful sermon, delivered straight from the shoulder, by Rev. Harold G. Cooke, pastor of Turner Memorial church, on the subject, "How Do You Know You Are a Christian?"

One of the principal tests, he said, is that of knowing that one has a continual attitude of hatred toward sin.

"There is something wrong if you don't love righteousness," declared Reverend Cooke. "As the Apostle Paul said, 'The things I once hated I now love; the things I once loved, I now hate.'"

"There are members of the Methodist church right here in Tulsa who don't hate sin. Why is it they are not all afflicted by conditions that exist here, when the stench of these conditions rises to high heaven? If God doesn't come before sin, then there is something wrong."

"The great trouble is that too many people look along, indifferent to conditions here and in other places. They don't pay enough attention to whether these conditions please God."

"Too many run their business, enjoy their pleasures, and conduct their social affairs without even thinking whether they are conducted rightly toward God. They don't ask themselves whether they are pleasing to the Lord. They should ask 'Is this satisfactory to God?'"

"Envy and malice, and hatred must be removed from the heart before a man can be a Christian. If we don't love the things for which Jesus Christ gave his life, we are not Christians."

"When a man goes to his office and takes God with him and lets God sit with him all day long as a part of his business, he has taken an important step toward fulfilling the fundamental teachings of Christianity."

Reverend Cooke declared that no Christian needs to wear a long face. The real Christian, he said, should feel joyous and wear a smile.

pressed its approval of the cabinet. The democrats wanted Count von Bernstorff in the ministry, but were opposed by the majority socialists. The latter proposed their leader, Otto Landsberg, for cabinet position, but his selection was bitterly opposed by the democrats.

PARIS, March 27.—The allies have not yet given the Germans permission to send troops into the Ruhr district. The French continue to insist that military occupation of the neutral zone by Germans would further endanger execution of the peace treaty, declaring that there would be no way of getting them out again except by force.

Foreman for Large Oil Company Says He Didn't Feel Like Himself for Two Years.

L. J. Cookerly, a well known and popular foreman for Howard-Duffield-Berlin oil operators, residing on rural route eight Tulsa, Okla., in his statement regarding the benefits he has obtained from Orgatone, a few days ago said:

"I have taken three bottles of Orgatone and I am greatly pleased with the results in my case. I haven't been what you would call a sick man, but I have been all out of shape for about two years, and haven't felt like myself at all. I was emaciated and listless and had no life or energy scarcely. My system was in a very run-down condition generally and I was always catching cold, I felt depressed and all run-down and would have to just force myself to duty. I felt that my condition was getting worse all the time and I needed something to relieve me of my troubles and build me up."

"Orgatone was just what my system needed to straighten me out. It seemed to go right to the spot and I could feel a change in my condition for the better after the first dose. I have now been relieved of the constipation and listlessness and my general condition is much improved. I don't feel run-down like I did and I get plenty of good sound, refreshing sleep every night and I don't feel tired on getting up in the morning like I did. My stomach is in good shape and I eat heartily and my food all agrees with me and gives me strength. Orgatone has relieved me of that dull, sluggish feeling and given me vim and energy and it is now a pleasure for me to do my work. I am so pleased over what Orgatone has done for me, I am recommending it to everyone in a run-down condition as I was."

Orgatone is not a so-called patent or secret remedy, but a new scientific treatment absolutely free from alcohol in any form and is sold in Tulsa by Ray B. Gelman's Rexall Store exclusively, under the personal direction of a special Orgatone representative. Out agencies are: The Rexall Store, West Tulsa, and Wood Queens Drug Store, Sapulpa.—Advt.

After Five Years' Watch on Grave, Storm Kills Faithful Dog.

BLANCHESTER, Ohio, March 27.—Jack, a homeless yellow dog, was found dead on his master's grave, near Hamburg, having perished in the blizzard of a few days ago.

For five years he had kept a vigil over the grave of John Dindore, leaving it only long enough to obtain food. All efforts to coax the dog away failed. Ministers have preached sermons on the love, devotion and grief shown by the dog.
